The term 'Dealer' refers to an investment dealer in Canada contracted with the Issuer to sell the Account.

Investments made in the Account are deposited into a trust account with the Issuer. In exchange for the Issuer opening an Account and providing services for the Account, you understand and agree as follows:

The features and requirements of your Account are subject to change at any time at the Issuer's discretion. For the most updated information, please review the Account features, available at <https://www.firstontario.com/dealer-hisa>.

Transactions

Deposits to and withdrawals from the Account may only be made by the Dealer submitting orders through the servicing agent designated by the Issuer for this purpose, which until further notice, is Fundserv Inc. The Issuer or the servicing agent may establish rules, policies or procedures to allow access to the Account by the Dealer through the servicing agent.

Redeemability

The Account is payable in whole or in part upon request. Payment will occur as soon as practicable but at least one (1) business day after the order to redeem is received by the Issuer in writing.

Right to Freeze or Redeem

The Issuer may freeze or redeem the funds in the Account without notice to you or to the Dealer on your behalf for any reason, including when required by law, or at any time if the Issuer has reasonable grounds to believe that the product is used for any unlawful, improper or fraudulent purpose, and/or is operated in a manner unsatisfactory to the Issuer or contrary to the Issuer's policies or these Terms and Conditions.

Third Party Demands

The Issuer will comply with any lawful third-party demands it receives in respect with the Account without notice to you or the Dealer. If the Issuer complies with a third-party demand, it may charge against the Account its reasonable costs to do so.

Amendment

The Issuer from time to time, at its discretion and without notice to you, may amend these Terms and Conditions. Notice of these changes will be sent to the Dealer on your behalf.
